

Settle Down with a Colombian Woman

I want to settle down and have a family someday. A clean, sana Colombian woman once told me something I'll never forget. I asked her what the secret was to having such a nice, happy family. She said you just have to do it. Don't overthink it ... or you'll never do it.

There's little doubt in my mind I'll settle down with a Latin woman whenever I finally settle down. I am past the point of no return with Latinas. I love them in bed, I love them simple, I love them family-oriented. And that's how most of them are. If I continue to make Bogota my home, the Latina I marry will most likely be Colombian.

You could use a dating service. They organize beautiful women for social dating parties with foreign men. The women aren't guaranteed to like you, but they're available and looking.

If you're not interested in a social dating party, I know many Colombian women looking to meet American men. The women I know have money. They come with dowries. But these aren't women who just want to get the green card and say goodbye. They want a family with you. They want to make it work. They're attracted to American men, and they want to raise your children together in America.

For you, one advantage in marrying a Colombian woman would be residence in Colombia. Colombia won't let you stay forever on a tourist visa. I know gringos who've been deported. But if you're already down here and you want to stay, marrying a Colombian woman is one way. One immigration attorney explained, "If you marry a Colombian woman today, your problems with DAS are over tomorrow." OVER.

Many of the girls I know are beautiful, many are intelligent, all are real. They want to meet you and they're willing to start a family. It's at your fingertips. Send me an email, I'm happy to introduce you to somebody.

Look forward to hearing from you!
